Early Years Foundation Stage Masterclass: Interacting or Interfering?

Wednesday 29th November 2017
Sixways Stadium, Worcester
09:00 - 12:30

Overview

High quality interactions are recognised as fundamental to outstanding teaching and learning in the early years. This year’s Early Years Foundation Stage Masterclass will be led by renowned Early Years Professor, Advisor and Author Julie Fisher. Julie will draw on the research and findings gathered for her best-selling book ‘Interacting or Interfering? Improving Interactions In the Early Years.’

Accompanying Julie in the Masterclass is Gill Deakin, Learning and Teaching Advisor for Early Years from Babcock Prime. Together, Julie and Gill will encourage delegates to reflect deeply on the quality and impact of interactions in their setting and identify the essential components of effective interactions with practical guidance on how to improve the quality of interactions on a day-to-day basis.

“Fantastic presentation with lots of great ideas that has changed my way of thinking of how EYFS should be taught”
Delegate Feedback about Julie Fisher from EYFS Conference 2016, Surrey.
